CATHOLIC GIRLS' CLUB MEET

The Catholic Girls' Club met in St. Martin's Parish Sunday, October 3rd, to recite the Rosary for a successful and safe journey for Pope Paul IV.

The regular monthly meeting took place in the Church Hall immediately afterwards. The first Vice-President, Miss Suzanne LeMay opened the meeting with prayers. The new members were welcomed, also the new Catholic Women's League representative, Mrs.

F.A. Helmink. Treasuer and Membership Convenors gave their reports.

The group decided to meet twice a month, on first and third Sundays. Dues would remain the same, ten cents a month and fifty cents a year membership. They will receive Communion in a group the first Saturday every month wearing their uniform.

Mrs. Helmink spoke briefly on the Club's Constitution and it was decided to change one section to read "All girls age thirteen years of age or any age in Grade eight, will be eligible to attend the Club up to the age of eighteen years.

Father Gallagher thanked the outgoing executive and Catholic Women's League representative, Mrs. H. Boudreau, for their work in the past year. He went on to say the Club was expected to show a good example of Catholic action by attending the religious instructions that would start the coming Tuesday. Mrs. Helmink talked to the girls on appreciation of Mothers, telling them to thank their Mothers once in awhile for everyday things, clean clothes, prepared meals, clean homes; things normally taken for granted, and not forgetting Dad for his part by providing finance to live well.

The general meeting was then closed with Father's Blessing and prayers.

The nominating committee presented the slate of officers for voting. Elected were: President - Diane Campbell, Vice-President - Lita Marie Boudreau, Treasurer - Carole Gaudet, Secretary - Judith McInnes, appointed to office by the new executive were: Spiritual - L. Boudreau, Membership - S.
