

COURSES CONDUCTED (Continued from P. 8 and Nipigon. This course covered the job of the choirmaster or choral group leader, a simple method to enable leaders to teach the members to read music, breathing, voice production and tone control, the art of direction and a question and answer period.

Both courses were held from Friday to Sunday in the Recreation Centre.

LADIES AUXILIARY MEETS

Mrs. Kay Graham chaired the meeting Monday when the afternoon group of the Ladies Auxiliary met in the Community Church. Mrs. Lil Harris read the minutes and correspondence. The Worship was taken by Mrs. Lois McCausland and Mrs. Isobel Ferrier accompanied the opening hymn.

During the work period seventeen boxes were packed for shipment to the Crippled Civilians in Toronto and three for the Childrens Aid Society. Members agreed to donate to the children's table for the Christmas Bazaar.

A special teatime guest was Rev. Arthur Lavender, former minister of the church, and a very pleasant visit was enjoyed while lunch was served by Mesdames Graham and Harris.

CATHOLIC GIRLS CLUB MEETS

The mid-October meeting of the Catholic Girls' Club was held October 17 in St. Martin's Parish Hall. The president, Diane Campbell, opened the meeting with the prayer for teenagers. The treasurer's report was read and at the business portion of the meeting suggestions were considered for ways of raising money. Ideas for games to be held at the Membership Tea on Nov. 7th were discussed.

The meeting concluded with a lively discussion on the topic of the Legion of Decency for movies. Many views were taken. After this the girls were served a lunch by their convenors.
