

Man Feared Drowned

Ontario Provincial Police at Nipigon are dragging Barbara Lake, 40 miles northeast of Nipigon, searching for a 27-year-old Terrace Bay man believed drowned Saturday.

OPP report that Donald Tees and Reginald Payette, both of Terrace Bay, were fishing on the lake Saturday and about 3:30 p.m. when water became rough their 13-foot boat capsized. Both clung to the overturned boat for a while but Tees apparently slipped off into the frigid water.

Payette is reported to have blacked out about that time and remembers nothing until he was picked up from the boat by another party of fishermen about 6:30 p.m.

Payette was apparently so stiff when rescued he couldn't bend his body.

A search was organized Saturday night for Tees, but nothing was turned up. Payette stayed overnight at a nearby cabin where he was warmed by his rescuers.

He was examined at Nipigon hospital Sunday and found in good condition.

The only thing more expensive than education is ignorance.

Television is called a medium because so little of it is either rare or well-done.

Miss McBride, who has been with the local Bank of Montreal staff for the past three years, is taking an IBM course and Miss Pearson, a Nurse's Aid, will take her vacation before starting work. Miss Lalonde and Miss McParland will leave shortly to join the others.

FIRE BRIGADE PLANS ANNUAL DANCE

Loud laughter emerged from the fire house when the brigade held a meeting to plan this year's masquerade hall. Les Milks of the Dept. of Highways, remembering this event which is THE fun night for local adults, offered to lend a dance program which, he said, had been most successful. The men were grateful until they opened the program and found such scintillating (Cont'd next col.)
