WINDUP BANQUET & DANCE HELD BY GOLF CLUB

The Terrace Bay Aguasabon Golf Club put the final touches to a successful year by having a windup banquet and dance that was tremendously enjoyed by all.

In the absence of Jack Thomas, Thor Olsen gave a brief summary of the year's operations. He also thanked the members for the good turnout and congratulated Joe Caccamo for a good job in organizing the banquet. He then called on Mr.Ferrier to present, on behalf of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, a beautiful trophy to the club. This trophy will be presented to the Club Champion each year with a very impressive plaque which the winner will retain.

In his remarks before the presentation Mr. Ferrier commented on the completion of the Course, giving a lot of credit to the voluntary work done by members. He also expressed the Company's continuing interest in the club's activities and future expansion. He intimated the Company's support whenever progress necessitates a club house. The role that the Company has played to date in the building of the golf course has somewhat been taken for granted. However, the appreciation and recognition of the club manifested itself in the hearty applause to Mr. Ferrier's remarks.

The Kimberly-Clark Trophy was presented to Dave Whalen, this year's Club Champion. The beautiful plaque which Dave will retain was passed around and everyone expressed admiration for it.

Other prizes were presented to other winners. Unfortunately there were no ladies presentations but next year, with the formation of a ladies' club, various competitions will be held during the year.

A large crowd attended the dance following the banquet.

His many friends in the district were shocked to learn of the sudden death in Sault Ste.Marie of Gordon Black. Gordon, his wife 'Sparky' and son Terry resided in Terrace Bay for several years. Taking a keen interest in sports and fishing, Gordon was associated with and served on the executive of several organizations in the community. He was an employee of the L.C.B.O here and at the Sault.

A brother, Ray Black, his wife Carol and his father left on Sunday for the Sault to attend the funeral which, we understand, is to be held on Tuesday afternoon.
