LOCAL GROUP HOST TO DUPERIOR DEANERY

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Anglican Church was hostess group for the meeting of the Superior Deanery. Rector R.J.S. Inshaw was celebrant of Holy Communion, assisted by Rev. I.L. Robertson, Rural Dean, of Wawa. Following this service the clergy and auxiliary were served luncheon in the church hall.

Superior Deanery president, Mrs. R.E. Gray, presided for the meeting in the afternoon which began with the general prayer of thanksgiving and the W. A. prayer. Reports were presented by Mrs. Leah Foley of Red Rock, Mrs. J. Molloy of Marathon, Mrs. F. Atwill of Nipigon and Mrs. K.S. Sparkes of Schreiber.

The author, Mrs. A. Manley, read the history of the Thunder Bay Deanery Women's Auxiliary which was formed in 1936 with the first meeting held in St. Paul's Church, Fort William.

Congratulations were extended to Mrs. Gray on her appointment as president of the Superior Deanery.

In describing the various activities of the Girl's Auxiliary in Schreiber, Mrs. Inshaw said that, despite the small membership they were justly proud of the honors they had won and she felt strongly that interest was kept at peak by the responsibilities delegated. An appeal for assistance in the junior girls group was made by Mrs. W. Sutherland, Jr. Auxiliary secretary for Thunder Bay deanery. Mrs. F. Parkus, Diocesan Family Life Dept. (pre-school), secretary, described changes being made in the Little Helpers organization. Miss Heather Graham volunteered to assist in this work. Mrs. I.H. Birch displayed educational supplies. Red Rock, W.A., through Mrs. Foley, extended an invitation to host the next deanery meeting.

Fine needlework in a beautiful display of Pakistani embroidery by Mrs. George Brownridge was much admired.
