SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR HELD BY COMMUNITY CHURCH LADIES AUXILIARY

Amid Christmas decorations visitors were welcomed Saturday afternoon as they arrived at the Community Church for the Annual Bazaar. Gay Poinsettias and white glitter candles were arranged on the lace covered tea table from which Mesdames Eva Haughn, Agnes Sinkins, Noreen Coe and Emily Lohr poured from the silver tea services. Mrs. Marge Lundberg convened the Tea with Mesdames Lois Hopper, Betty Sweet, Vera Kennedy, Nellie Crandlemire and Jessie Dodge replenishing.

Convenors of the Bazaar, Mesdames Ivy Pattison and Helen Farrell, had as their busy assistants on the various well-stocked booths: Baking - Mesdames Dorothea Ballentyn e, Marge Anderson and Joan Clarke; Novelties - Mrs. Helen Brooks; Cookis Tree, Mrs. Gwen Olsen - The Kiddies Corner and Wishing Well, Mesd. Stella Brown and Gertrude Cotton - Knitting Mrs. Hilda Hiebert - Doll Clothes, Mesd. Evelyn Shivas, Marilyn Chisholm and Maisie Sutherland - Aprons, Mesd. Lil Harris and Audrey Smith - Cakes and Puddings - Mesdames Ivy Pattison and Lois McCausland.

Members of the C.G.I.T. and their Leaders, in addition to having their own Candy Table were extremely helpful as they served at the tea tables, assisted in all booths and ran their own free baby-sitting service, enabling mothers to enjoy a leisurely cup of tea or Christmas shop. They were also responsible for the Christmasy atmosphere, having decorated the entire hall. The head table and tea table decorations were the clever creations of Mrs. Lois Hopper.

CREDIT UNION OBSERVES 17TH ANNIVERSARY

President Reg Payette welcomed members and guests Saturday evening as the Terrace Bay Community Credit Union held their seventeenth annual banquet and social in the Moose Hall. Concluding another very successful year, Mr. Payette briefly reported on the annual meeting held Thursday evening. Though losing approximately sixty-five members due to departures during the past year, the membership had still been increased by twelve, which certainly indicated continuous growth.

In addition to accepting annual reports from the Board, the Treasurer Manager, Supervisory Committee, the Credit Committee, the Delinquent Loan Committee and the Education Committee, the members had at this meeting voted to continue with a dividend of 4½% and to allot 5% to the Education Fund.

Concluding his report, he thanked the past executive before introducing the new members elected to the board: Board of Directors - Reg Payette, Cliff Knauff Jr., and John Graham for a three year term, Peter Frederickson and Chuck Lavigne for a two year term. Supervisory Committee: Ab Farrow for a three year term, Reg Cotton for a two year term and Frank Sechesky for a one year term. Willard Vezina was elected to the Credit Committee. Completing the executive serving on the Board of Directors
