High School Auditorium. Registrations will be accepted up until this date.

TEEN TOWN

Teen Town will hold their first dance for this month on Friday, December 10th, in the Old Curling Lounge, starting at 8.30 p.m. Music will be by the VOODOOS.

SNOW FESTIVAL

Organizations from Terrace Bay will be contacted shortly to sponsor floats for the parade to be held in conjunction with the Snow Festival. Big prize money will be offered for the best floats.

The events mentioned in the last issue of the NEWS include a beard-growing contest, Skidoo, Bombardier and Husky races. This means that people who intend to enter the beard-growing contest should let their beards start to grow NOW and for the competitive racing, owners should start timing their machines.

and universities; there is a shortage of skilled craftsmen and technologists; there are jobs waiting for mature people if men and women can be found and directed to them; there are people in the wrong jobs who could be helped into the right ones to their own and Canada's advantage. And this is to mention only a few of the challenges that exist.

If more and better counselling can make even a dent, something will have been achieved.

ART CLUB NEWS - The local Art Club have adjourned for the Christmas season. Watch for announcements in the new year.

ADVENT IN ST. ANDREWS CHURCH (Cont'd)

Following this the children of the kindergarten and junior Sunday School presented a program with Jack Johnston as chairman and Mrs. George Leggyel as organist.

Trained elephants recognize 20-25 different work commands.
