WHAT CHRISTMAS MEANS TO ME

(by Susan Pluta - Grade 4 - Public School)

What Christmas really means to me is that Jesus was born on that very day, nearly two thousand years ago. Even poor people can celebrate Christmas, because it is not how many presents you give, just the love in our hearts.

We give gifts because we love each other, but many people forget that Christmas is Christ's birthday. On Christmas we have turkey and pie, and when Jesus was born all he had was a stable and swaddling clothes to wrap him in. but Jesus did not complain.

The North Star led three wise men that were trying to find baby Jesus, to the stable, and there they gave gold, frankincense and myrrh.

When Jesus grew up many people hated him, then crucified him, when his only purpose was to do good. So, on Christmas remember Jesus and don't leave him out of your heart, and you'll have a happier Christmas.
