LETTERS FROM THE U.S.A. (Continued from P.9)
 friend, Mr. M. Cressner of Plymouth, Indiana. Mr. Cressner and his wife have visited in Canada several times and were so impressed with our community that he has kept in touch via the News for several years now. He says that "having read about the citizens for so long he is most interested in seeing their pictures." And a Happy and Prosperous New Year to you Mr. Cressner - and we hope that Mrs. Cressner enjoys better health in 1966.

Another lovely card came from The Roy Ruckers of Bridgeport, Ill. who made a stopover in Terrace Bay and called at our office. They say "Now that we are Decempering - it's time to be remembering." We too, remember, Mr. and Mrs. Rucker and wish you all the best.
