WEDDING CEREMONY IN ST. JEROME'S

With the altar decorated in the Christmas theme, Lorraine Agnes Mushqush, daughter of Lawrence Mushqush and the late Mrs. Mushqush of Pays Plat Mission, and William Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Greer of Pt. Arthur, were married in St. Jerome's Church at Pays Plat by Rev. Father Maurice at 10 o'clock Monday morning December 27th. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Bill Hubelit and the choir sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of imported nylon over taffeta in a pale rose shade. The fitted bodice had a scalloped neckline edged with embroidered lace and a three quarter sleeved bolero. The skirt fell in full unpressed pleats. She wore a three strand aurora borealis cut crystal necklace and ear rings, a gift of the groom. Her three tiered shoulder length net veil was caught to a circle of seed pearls and white rosettes. Her accessories were white and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern.

Miss Joyce Mushqush, niece of the bride, was the bridesmaid and was gowned in a street length full skirted dress of blue peau de soie over taffeta with insets of lace appliques. The fitted bodice had a scooped neckline, lace bolero and cummerbund. She wore white accessories and a blue head-dress with fly away veil and carried a blue carnation nosegay. Ken Holmberg, brother in law of the groom, was bestman and Mike Wannekimik, brother in law of the bride, was usher.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. & Mrs. David Mushqush in Rosspport. The house and luncheon table were decorated with pink, blue and white streamers and bells. The table was centered with a driftwood centerpiece holding white and blue flowers and the three tiered wedding cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Herb Legault was surrounded by white and pink tulle.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Mushqush and Mrs. Greer, Mrs. Mushqush choosing a black ensemble of silk crepe and black accessories and a corsage of white and pink carnations. Mrs. Greer wore beige nylon lace over taffeta with brown accessories and a corsage of cream roses.
