THE GARDEN OF STARS

Multi-purpose light entertainment centre being built by EXPO 67 will serve as a children's entertainment area in the late morning and early afternoon as a teen-age dance hall in the early evening, and as a top-flight nightclub at night. The $1,100,000 building, which was designed by Montreal architect Max Roth, will stand close to Dolphin Lake in La Ronde, the Exhibition's 110-acre amusement park..

FAREWELL PARTY FOR THE RIDSDALES

A farewell party for Mr. & Mrs. J. B. Ridsdale was held by the congregation of St. Andrew's United Church in the Church Hall with J. N. Ross as MC for the evening.

A piano duet was played by Daryl Lynn and Wendy Weaver and both also played solos. The senior members of the Junior Choir sang two selections "How great thou art" and "The church in the wildwood". An amusing skit was presented by Sharon Riley, Colleen Cosgrove and Cathy and Lou McGrath. Mr. Jack Johnston showed slides of local and district scenes.

Roly Gander, on behalf of the Board of Stewards, on which Mr. Ridsdale had served for 17 years presented him with a wallet. Mrs. Ridsdale, who has been an active member of first the W.A. and later the U.C.W. was presented with a gift of corning ware by the U.C.W. President Mrs. T.P. Whent made the presentation.

A sunburst wall clock and money was presented by J.N. Ross on behalf of the congregation and the many other friends in the community who attended the party. Lunch served by the U.C.W. ended the pleasant evening.

NEARING COMPLETION

EXPO 67's administration and news building (foreground) will be ready for occupancy early in 1966. The three-storey, three wing building will provide 200,000 square feet of office space for Expo's staff. In the background is the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's World Broadcasting Centre from which will originate Canada's first color TV in 1967.
