

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST HELD

Knights of Columbus, St. Edward's Council, 3554, held their annual public speaking contest for students of Marathon, Terrace Bay, Schreiber and Nip-Rock High Schools.

The contest was held in the Schreiber High School auditorium and Sanford Chicoine, Grand Knight, welcomed the audience, explaining the contest is one phase of K of C youth activities sponsored yearly.

In the senior division Gordon Moorey of Schreiber placed first, his topic Canadian Citizenship. Deborah Stewart of Terrace Bay came second with the topic Conformity vs Individuality.

Winner of the Junior Division was Beverley Berube of Nipigon speaking on Drug Addiction. Placing second was Lois Ann Fraser of Terrace Bay who spoke on Vietnicks.

Other junior winners were Christine Climie of Red Rock and George Dashkewytch of Terrace Bay. Other senior speakers were Mary Lou Karns and Cora Spadoni of Schreiber, John Helliwell of Marathon and Keith Koski of Terrace Bay.

Judges for the contest were Rev. D.F. Muldrew, D.E. Smith and Sister Majella, all of Schreiber. E.E. Forgues, Schreiber High School principal introduced the speakers and E. Ashe of the staff was timer.

Gordon Moorey and Beverley Berube each received a large trophy and a miniature one for themselves. They also received other gifts. P.J. Guina Deputy Grand Knight and Albert Cadieux of Terrace Bay, District Deputy Grand Knight, made presentations to all contestants.

Diane Rummery was pianist for the occasion and the school choir, under her direction, sang two selections.

Mr. Forgues warmly commended the Council for their interest as these contests are of great benefit to the students since public speaking is an important part of the school curriculum.

Lunch was served by members of the home and school association.
