in the town. He spoke of his pleasant association with him as a fellow worker and said he was one of the few native sons to work out his career to pension here.

W.E.D'Arcy, local chairman for the B.of R.T. thanked Mr. McCuaig for the excellent work he had done as representative of passenger conductors of Lodge 419. Others who spoke briefly were Gino Caccamo, Jack Kennedy and Gordon McCuaig.

Mr. Harness, on behalf of the friends gathered, presented a unique gift--literally yards of money--which was artfully concealed in a gift wrapped box from which extended a wide white ribbon. Mr. McCuaig was asked to pull the ribbon and start walking and as he did the ribbon with bills attached rolled the length of the hall behind him.

In response Mr. McCuaig thanked those who were present and said to be happy and successful in work one must have the co-operation of one's fellow workers and he had always had this. Adding to the happiness of the occasion was the presence of all Mr. and Mrs. McCuaig's family with the exception of their younger son Chal who was writing examinations in Winnipeg and was unable to make the trip home.

A family dinner was held in the couple's home the same day when many personal gifts were presented. Following the presentation and speeches dancing was enjoyed with music supplied by Allan Bourk and H.W. Gellert and the pleasant evening ended with lunch.

In addition to those already mentioned who came to Schreiber for the event were Don Jaffray of Toronto, Mrs. J.C. Tronson, Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Jack Hepburn, Mr. & Mrs. Gordon McCuaig, Bob Kroft, Miss Ora Mae Harness, Miss Dawn Goldstein, Fort William; Mr. and Mrs. J. Goldstein, Jim Mulligan, Dennis Barnes, Ross Pellow, Chapleau; Jim Rankin, Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. Caccamo, Mr. and Mrs. J. Little, Miss Marion Desormeau, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Caldwell of Terrace Bay and Mr. and Mrs. K.T. McCuaig of Heron Bay.

ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING HELD

W.E. Collinson was appointed Rector's Warden at the Annual vestry meeting of St. John's Anglican Church held in the church hall. Rev. R.J.S. Inshaw was chairman and W.G. Furlonger vestry clerk.

Officers were elected as follows:- P.R. Bailey, church treasurer - G.H. Birch, people's warden - W.G. Furlonger, vestry clerk and envelope recorder. A nominating committee of W.R. Turner and Mrs. Turner, Godfrey Birch and W.G. Furlonger was formed to present a slate of officers in December for the year 1967.

The various annual reports presented, including the financial statement given by the treasurer, P. R. Bailey, indicated a successful year completed.

The Rector's report showed continued growth within the parish. He noted an increase in church attendance and in the number of persons confirmed, in spite of the loss of many families or individuals through death or removal from the parish.

Two memorials were dedicated during the year, the first a processional cross given by Mrs. T.H. Bottomley in memory of her husband and dedicated by His Grace the Archbishop of Algoma at the Confirmation service in July. The second, a funeral pall made by Mrs. W. Brefitt, the former Ardeth Birch, and given by Mrs. T. Wilson and son Wayne in memory of Theodore Wilson, father of Wayne and husband of Mrs. Wilson. This was dedicated by Rev. Inshaw at the Christmas Eve Service.

In October, during a luncheon for visiting members of Superior Deanery and clergy, Mrs. R.E. Gray was congratulated on her appointment as president of the Deanery.

The names of those of the parish who had died in the past year were read and remembered with a moment's silence and prayer.

In closing the rector thanked the church officers and members for their loyalty and support. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. Inshaw and was followed by lunch served by the evening group.
