Canadian Council of Christians and Jews

BROTHERHOOD WEEK FEBRUARY 20TH TO 27TH

Next week is Brotherhood Week in Canada - and special events will be held in communities across Canada.

Brotherhood Week is sponsored by the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews. The observance was begun in 1948 in a single Ontario community and has grown since until almost every major community in the country participates.

Most people support the idea of the brotherhood of men. Unfortunately, however, not everyone makes use of the idea as a guide to daily living. Animosity and prejudices continue to drive wedges between people.

The barriers cannot be removed by legislation because it is not possible to legislate changes in human nature. But it is possible to influence human attitudes by education. And this is where Brotherhood Week comes in. It focuses attention on those things shared in common by all races and creeds.

This is a commendable effort. The more people join together in support of the objectives of human brotherhood, the quicker intolerance will fade.

Everyone has something to gain from unity and a lot to lose because of discord. This is why everyone should support Brotherhood Week.
