

General Manager, Zen-Mac Mine, P. Broadhurst

Bernie Rivola, Power Plant Foreman

Testoris Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Testori were honored Saturday by relatives and friends from Nipigon, Rosspport, Schreiber and Terrace Saturday on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary.

Peter Testori and Angela Zanni were married in Falmenta, Lavora, Italy on Feb. 18, 1926 and came to Canada in 1932. They resided in Rosspport since where Mr. Testori was employed by the CPR until retirement about six years ago. They have one daughter, Prina (Mrs. Eugene Gerow) and two grandchildren Peter and Cathy Gerow.

Mrs. Len Ibey presented the couple with a decorated gallon jug filled with paper money from their many friends in the district. The couple received numerous congratulatory messages, floral tributes and gifts.

The luncheon table was covered with a hand crocheted cloth made by the bride of 40 years ago. The decorated wedding cake was made by their daughter and topped with a miniature bride and groom ornament.

LADIES COLLECT AUCTION ARTICLES

Mrs. T. Seppala entertained the members of Rosspport Union Church Ladies Aid Sunday for the monthly meeting. President Mrs. H. Middleton led the discussions on the agenda.

New member Mrs. Yandon was welcomed. Tickets for the spring draw were distributed. Articles for the penny auction sale were collected.

Head Cook Nick Rawlev & Asst. Harvey Korkola

Workmen leaving mine shaft

Mr. and Mrs. J. Spillett of Rosspport who recently celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Testori, Mr. & Mrs. E. Gerow, Peter and Cathy. Photo, Mrs. Todesco.

Mrs. M. Brewer entertained the 500 Club Tuesday on Tuesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Eugene Gerow, Mrs. Gordon Rousseau and Mrs. O. Foreman.

Mrs. D. W. Gerow visited daughter Patricia at Wawa over the weekend.

Miss Carol Hubelit returned to Wawa after holiday with her parents.

Russell Gerow of Fort William was home over the weekend.

Ben Lapenski and H. Middleton returned Saturday from Atikokan.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Rousseau were Lakehead visitors during the week.

Zone Comman der Leonard Hiller, David Gunter, W. E. Collinson and Jack Winters of Branch #109, Royal Canadian Legion, Schreiber, attended a simar at Kakabeka over the weekend.