

THE SCHREIBER NEWS

March 17, 1966

Spadoni Trophy Winners - L.to R. Albina Welbourne, Frankie Nesbitt, Connie Gauthier. Missing is Katie Frommann. Photo I. McCuaig

INTER-CLUB BONSPIEL WON BY LEBLANC RINK

The first event in the annual Inter-Club bonspiel of the Kinsmen and Lions' Clubs was won by Carl LeBlanc's rink with Peter A. Speziale, Brenda Harper and Val O'Keefe. Burton Phillips won the second event with Ralph Hewson, Fay Thorsteinson and Sharon Webb.

The program was arranged by Frankie Cataford and during the day a buffet lunch of coffee and sandwiches was continuously ready for the curlers.

MEETING HELD TO DISCUSS CENTENNIAL

Representatives of various organizations in town met recently in the High School to discuss a centennial celebration for Schreiber. Among the suggestions considered were a meeting place for senior citizens and a Schreiber re-union on July 1, 2 and 3 of Centennial year.

Those attending were to take back these and other ideas for approval to the groups they represented and bring back their decision to a meeting in April.

There were twenty-six present with Mrs. Lester McCuaig chairing the meeting.

MARCH OF DIMES COLLECTION $406.08

Four hundred and six dollars and sixty-eight cents was collected for the March of Dimes in Schreiber by the forty-one canvassers. Mrs. J.R. Rummery was chairman for the canvass and the captains were Mesdames D'Arcy McGuire, Russell Macadam, Bill Mullins, J.D. Bryson and Oscar Niemi.

Young skaters - front, Patty Nesbitt, Caroly Vanderkam, Lori Drake - back - Valerie Rigelsford, Debby Jones, Victoria Krause and Pamela Nesbitt.

LOCAL GIRLS DONATE TO ARTIFICIAL ICE FUND

Sixty-eight dollars was presented to Jack Bryson, manager of the Schreiber Arena, by Shirley Winters and Nancie Spillane at their recent figure skating show. The girls raised the money by giving figure skating lessons and by collecting at their show and donated it to the Artificial Ice Fund.

Theme of the show this year was Past and Present, the comparison shown in the following numbers:- Solo - Flapper Girl, by Susan Johnson, with a bevy of paper dolls as a background--Arlene Krause, Debbie Jones, Laura Carmichael, Shelly Souliere, Vicky Krause, Valerie Rigelsford, Wendy Jones, Pam Nesbitt, Dianna Madge, Carolyn Vanderkam, Holly Smith, Joan Richardson, Judy Davis, and Patty Nesbitt. Linda Lidkea soloed in an Old Fashioned Girl.

A Cowboy and Indians number introduced Pamela Winters, Barbara Duffy, Lynn Drake, Debbie McKenna, Donna Garlick, Debbie Smith, Paul Nygaard and Debbie Wilkinson. Nancie Spillane gave Indian Princess as a solo followed by Laura Carmichael in The Busy Bees.

Square Dancers were Shirley Winters, Nancie Spillane, Linda Lidkea, Joyce Cluett, Debbie Lidkea, Judy Richardson, Wendy Pitkanen, Edith Relph, Linda Pitkanen and Jane Bailey. A Waltz Duet was given by Susan Johnson and Janice Cluett. Debbie Lidkea danced a Ballerina solo and Janice Cluett did a Calypso Beat number. Wendy and Linda Pitkanen offered a Skier's Duet and Rhythm In The Rain was presented by Nancie Spillane, Shirley Winters, Janice and Joyce Cluett, Debby and Linda Lidkea and Susan Johnson. Jane Bailey and Edith Relph did A Sailor Duet and The Slumber Party was presented by Terry Weaver . . . . .continued . . .