Honorary pallbearers were Phillip Dankovich, Cyril Sparkes, Tom Whitton, Walter Shewchuk, Nelson Smith and Tom Bolan and active pallbearers were Wallace McCouan, Douglas May, Godfrey Birch, Jim Clavelle, Sulo Pelto and Alex Guryk. Interment was in Schreiber Cemetery.

Mr. Lawson is survived by his wife, the former Charlotte Lockhart; six daughters, Ella (Mrs. Chas. Nesbitt) of Schreiber; Wilma (Mrs. R.S. Hutchison) of Fort William; Mrs. Vivian Axelson of Geraldton, Mrs. Alice Potvin of Schreiber, Edith (Mrs. Alex O'Grodnic) of Terrace Bay, Ruby (Mrs. James Townsend) of Ashburn, Manitoba and two sons--Tom of Schreiber and Don of Calgary. There are also 21 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Born at Fort Osnaburgh on Lake St. Joseph in 1878, Eddy at the age of 19 paddled from there to White River with a friend the same age. From White River he came to Schreiber in 1909 remaining here since. Idleness to Eddy was unendurable and, after retiring from the CPR in 1943 he started working for the town and at 82 was still on the job. His excellent memory and quiet humour made his company a delight to younger people.

Shortly after arriving in White River he and fifteen others took off from Missanabie in thirty foot canoes and ferried supplies to Moose Factory, the round trip taking four months.

Attending the service from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Townsend, Allan and Pat, of Ashburn, Man., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foster, Mrs. R.S. Hutchison of Fort William, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hutchison and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hutchison of Port Arthur, Miss Ellen Axelson of Geraldton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Linklater, Miss Mary Linklater, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Micus and Mrs. Lillian Kettere of White River, Mr. and Mrs. Alex O'Grodnic and Mr. and Mrs. T. Pelto of Terrace Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Martyn Ryan and family spent the week in Fort William with relations. Jim Mulligan of Chapleau was with his brother Pat. Mr. and Mrs. Casey McBride and family of White River visited Mrs. Russell McBride. Mary Fran Kelly of Marathon was with Colleen Cosgrove while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, visited Mr. and Mrs. Hobden Spikula. Mrs. Richard Moher and family of Manitouwadge spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Singleton.

Mrs. W. Mullins, John Power and D'Arcy McGuire were in Toronto to attend a meeting of the Ontario Separate Schools Association.

Miss Juanita Stewart of Port Arthur visited her brother Hugh and Mrs. Stewart during Easter week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCuaig were in Heron Bay recently to attend the Dunford-McCuaig wedding.
