at every home starting on June 1. The population census consists of just five questions and the farm census will also be simple but with more questions listed. They will also record all business establishments to develop a master list for the Census of Merchandising which will be completed by mail after the end of the 1966 fiscal year.

One aspect of the Census stressed by Mr. Cavanaugh as he made preparations to administer the Census locally was the need for public cooperation. He urged everyone in the district to cooperate because "in the long run, everybody stands to benefit," he said.
