

Some of the winners in the Schreiber Ladies' Curling Club - Dorothy Kenney, Albina Welbourne, Anita Bowliar, Barbara Halonen, Frankie Caccamo, Nellie Gray. Photo by Inez McCuaig

CWL REVIEWS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Gordon McParland presided for the regular meeting of Holy Angels Church Catholic Women's League in Schreiber April 17.

Mrs. Rita Devlin, diocesan spiritual convener, Fort William, wrote inviting members to attend a diocesan convention in St. Patrick's Parish, Fort William May 9-11. Those wishing to attend are to give their names to Mrs. Roly Stortini.

Mrs. Ted Morrow presented the annual treasurer's report and financial statement, indicating substantial donations given to the building fund, welfare and Sisters of St. Joseph.

Mrs. M. J. McGrath gave the annual education report, stating three pounds of used postage stamps donated to aid foreign missions; a bursary was given to a high school student and various awards and prizes to graduates of the separate school. The newly - organized parish library now is well stocked with books.

Mrs. Bill Mullins stated boxes of used Christmas cards, books, papers and clothing had been sent to missions. Christmas hampers were sent to needy families in the parish.

Mrs. L. R. Tremblay for Girl Guides and Brownies stated Easter baskets had been distributed to shut-ins. A Brownie enrolment ceremony is planned for April 27 and a mother and daughter banquet May 18.

The Catholic Girls' club report stated flowers had been placed on the altar for Easter services and their daffodil tea is planned for May 21.

The members brought a good assortment of gifts for the cancer cupboard.

New officers elected are: Mrs. D'Arcy McGuire, president; Mrs. Bill Stefurak, Mrs. J. M. McGrath and Mrs. Arthur Moorey, vice - presidents; Mrs. L. R. Tremblay, recording secretary; Mrs. Roly Stortini, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ted Morrow, treasurer; Father J. M. Cano, director.

MRS. H. McCANNA HEADS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Mrs. Wesley Miller presided for the regular meeting of Schreiber Women's Institute Tuesday afternoon with members answering the roll with cards for the secretary and penny auction articles.

The motto for the meeting was the proof of the pudding is in the eating. Selected topics for short courses were quilts and copper tooling. A donation of $5 was made to the cancer fund.

A monster penny auction is planned for June 5 in the town hall. The president and the treasurer presented their annual reports which were approved, as were reports of standing committees.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Harvey McCanna, president, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mrs. Harvey Stevenson and Mrs. T. Whitton, vice-presidents; Mrs. C. Todesco, secretary; Mrs. W. J. Throver, treasurer; Mrs. Keith Nesbitt and Mrs. K. S. Williamson, auditors; Mrs T. M. Bolan, district director; Mrs. J. D. Bryson pianist.

Conveners were named as follows: Mrs. Pat Bolan, agriculture and industries; Mrs. Wesley Clemens, citizenship; Mrs. Nelson Smith, historical research and current events; Mrs. Alvin Slater, home economics.

Mrs. Jack Corbett, tea hostess; Mrs. Wesley Miller, baby scales and equipment; Mrs. Ken Williamson, card secretary; Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mrs. Tom Whitton, Mrs. C. Todesco and Mrs. Tom Bolan, delegates to the district annual meeting to be held in Port Arthur in May.

- more page 13

Miss Ora Mae Harness, R.N., Reeve Harness, Miss Helen Harness and Mrs. Harness.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Many old friends called during the afternoon and evening to offer congratulations and good wishes to Reeve and Mrs. F.V. Harness on April 16th, their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

A dinner for relations and friends was given in the Mayfair Hotel with Rev. R. J. S. Inshaw offering the Grace. Mr. Inshaw extended the good wishes of St. John's Anglican congregation for the faithful service of both Mr. and Mrs. Harness and their family and other friends spoke informally.

Miss Ora Mae Harness of Fort William presented the tribute of her sisters Sylvia, Helen and herself.

Mr. and Mrs. Harness (nee Eirene Fairs) were married in St. John's Church in Schreiber with her sister Mavis (Mrs. Alvin Slater) as bridesmaid, Renold Alcorn as Best Man, Bill Gerow and Alvin Slater the Ushers and J. D. Bryson as soloist. Miss Florence Smith (Mrs. Leo Payette) was organist and Rev. Warder was the minister.

Mr. Manuel McCouan is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur.

The Senior First Aid Class of St. John Ambulance will start next Tuesday, May 3rd at 7.30 p.m. sharp in Schreiber Town Hall. No further registrations will be accepted after that evening.

RECEPTION HELD ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Birch celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a reception in their home April 14. Not only all their family was present, but their wedding attendants were there too. Mr. and Mrs. Birch, nee Edith Ball, were married in St. Luke's Anglican church in Fort William with Mrs. Cyril Sparkes and Wayne Wilson as attendants.

The Anniversary began with special communion celebrated in St. John's Anglican church for family and relations. In the evening an open reception was held in their home. Presented were many gifts, among these a silver rose and a corsage and boutonniere made of money.

Assisting the hostess were her daughter, Miss Marlene Birch, Sault Ste. Marie, George Birch, Ted Wilson, Bruce Lidkea, Cyril Sparkes and Jack Moore of Terrace Bay.