SPRING CONCERT PRESENTED BY MALE CHORUS

Members of the Terrace Bay Male Chorus were in fine voice last Friday evening as they presented their annual Spring Concert.

Opening with the familiar "Salvation", theme song of the Associated Male Choruses of America, they then presented four familiar selections--'Come To The Fair - Tumbling Tumblweed - A man's Best Friend is His Horse and I Want a Girl.'

Guest Artists, Miss Joanne Brown appeared, accompanied by Mrs.E.Hodgkiss. A receptive audience

The prolonged applause which followed Miss Brown's first number was rewarded when she sang two additional numbers.

The chorus again presented four selections before intermission. During this time Miss Brown selected the winning name on a draw conducted by the chorus and Mrs.Charlie Simmer took home a portable T.V. set won by her husband.

When the curtains opened for the second part of the program flags of many nations (created by the Art Club) formed a backdrop for the chorus who trav-
