elled around the world in song. Master of Ceremonies Ted Brown interjected comments between each number designed to transport the audience from one location to another. The Austrian song Wunderbar, concluded the program but an overwhelming response persuaded the Chorus to sing a couple of encores.

Bert Lohr, conductor of the Chorus, was assisted this year by John Bird and Carl Rose was accompanist. Solo parts in Greensleeves and Meadowland were sung by Bert Lohr.

Tony Commisso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Commisso of Schreiber and Terrace Bay, is a gifted young accordionist who won first place in the senior division at a recent talent show sponsored by the Terrace Bay Kiwanis Club, Inc.
