

ST. JOHN'S AUXILIARY HEARS PROJECT REPORTS

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Anglican Church made a donation to the United Thank-Offering at their May meeting with Mrs. A.C. Rigelsford presiding.

The treasurer stated all apportionments had been met and Mrs. Bob Gray reported the Take-Out and Mother's Day teas had been successful projects. Mrs. Bruce Lidkea reported she packed a box of clothing for the Dorcas secretary in Sudbury to be sent to Missions.

Members agreed to assist the girl's auxiliaries of the Church with their Mother and Daughter Banquet on May 31 and will plan for a party for the Little Helpers' group during June.

Mrs. Rigelsford and Mrs. Gray were named delegates to the auxiliary convention in Haileybury. After some discussion it was agreed that starting in the Fall when meetings are resumed, the hostess must serve but sandwiches or dessert, and fines will be levied for the Alms Box if the rule is broken.

Mrs. Bill Duncan was hostess for this meeting and Mrs. Ted Wilson was named June hostess.

DAFFODIL TEA HELD BY CATHOLIC GIRLS

The Catholic Girls' Club held their annual Daffodil Tea on May 21 in the Guild Hall with the president, Crystal Kusik, receiving. Mrs. Joe Caccamo was dining room hostess and the tea was poured by Mrs. Bill Stefurak and Mrs. Stanley Kusik, Mrs. Denis Connelly and Mrs. D'Arcy McGuire. Mrs. Marjorie Leadbeater will attend the May meeting Toronto. Regrets at being unable to attend were read from Dr. Scott of Fort William, Mrs. Kay Baxter and D. Earle, Marathon.

The annual financial statement was presented by L.R. McCuaig. Mrs. Davis suggested that regular meetings be set for the second Sunday in January, March and September each year and this was adopted.

In his address Mr. O'Brien said that with increasing control of tuberculosis in the country the need for voluntary committees in this area may not be so urgent but considerable thought should be given to their continuing on in their communities as health committees to pay attention to other health problems. He showed films taken during a tour of Indian, Ceylon and other countries, graphically portraying a pitiful inadequacy in fighting tuberculosis.

In his report L.C. Jones, district supervisor, medical rehabilitation branch, stated there has been a further decrease in admissions of T.B. patients (Continued...)
