C.W.L. RECESSES FOR SUMMER

The general meeting of the Catholic Women's League opened with the League Prayer and reports from standing committees on Sunday, June 12th, following the Corpus Christi Procession for Peace. Father Gallagher spoke on the supervision of children during the summer holidays and Spiritual Convenor Mrs. Roberts read an article on modesty in summer clothing.

The business meeting adjourned and guest speaker Mrs. Evans-Smith gave an interesting talk on Centennial projects throughout the district. Jane Perron then sang two solos and Marilyn and Glen Kujbida played two accordion numbers which were enthusiastically received by the audience.

Donuts and coffee were served by Mrs. Boudreau and her committee, ending the meetings for the summer.
