NEW BOOKS AT THE LIBRARY.

Our Veitnam Nightmare - Marguerite Higgins.
 The story of U.S.involvement in the Vietnamese tragedy, with thoughts on a future policy.
 Papa Hemingway - by A.E.Hotchner
 Children of Alla - by Agnes Newton Keith
 The Restless Church - William Kilbourn (editor)
 a response to the Comfortable Pew
 The Mogus - John Fowler.
 The Mogus is a maze, a dark door. Once through that door, however, the reader is drawn on by the story, by its strangeness, by its fascination, by its intricately woven web of suspense until he has followed the labyrinth to its centre and its compelling climax.

The Library will be closed Fridays for the months of July and August.

HOW TO PRESERVE A HUSBAND

- contributed by a reader

Be careful of your selection. Do not choose too young, and take only such as have been reared in a good moral atmosphere. Some insist on keeping them in hot water. This only makes them sour, hard and sometimes bitter. Even poor varieties may be made sweet, tender and good by garnishing them with patience, well sweetened with smiles and flavored with kisses to taste; then wrap them in a mantel of charity, keep warm with a steady fire of domestic devotion and serve with peaches and cream. When thus prepared they will keep for years.
