

"THERE'S OUR BIGGEST PROBLEM."

WICKS' WEEK
—By BEN WICKS

Do we HAVE to keep watching Batman?"

Catholic Women's League take part in Corpus Christie Procession.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith are in England on an extended holiday. They will meet their daughter, Miss Peggy Smith of Nipigon, already there, and visit many relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McParland and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McParland are in North Bay to attend the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McParland--grandchildren Doris McParland and Bob McParland also going.

Mrs. Marion Francis of London is visiting her sister Mrs. Joe Campbell of Schreiber.

Eighteen girls and eight boys received their first communion in Holy Angels' Roman Catholic Church from Father J.M. Cano on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Dominic Figliomeni taught the class and four members of the Catholic Girls' Club were ushers for the service which was followed by a Communion breakfast.

Perfect truth is possible only with knowledge, and in knowledge the whole thing and the soul is joined to it.

- Spinoza

L. to R. Eva Gordon, Helen Tripp, Beulah Speziale, Mavis Godin, Brenda Harper and Jackie Turner.

KINSMEN ENTERTAIN KINETTES

The Schreiber Kinsmen at a recent dinner entertained their Kinettes and visiting Kinsmen from Fort William who included William Kibzey, president, Jim Edwards, co-chairman National Convention, Stan Dromisky, recording chairman, National Convention, Paul Bentz, director, Bern Graham, secretary and Jim McCuaig.

The new officers of the local club are Bob Turner, president, Pete Speziale, past president, Barry Harper, sec retary, Emil Egert, treasurer, Mike Cosgrove and Ralph Hewson, directors.

The Kinettes went on to their own meeting in Dorothy Hewson's home and the Kinsmen to a stag evening, following the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Slater will visit friends and relations in the British Isles--Mrs. Slater's parents coming from Ireland.