TOWN TOPICS

GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP (Continued from page 1)

Vic tallied 42 - 40 and 41 on the three nines for a total of 123. He is a deserving winner who has pursued the game assiduously achieving an uncanny accuracy which, on our course, is invaluable.

Last year's champion, Dave Whalen, was runner up with 41-44 and 41 for a total of 126 while another strong contender, Bob Adamo, with 41-42 and 46 (129) came in third.

Handicap winners were:- tied for first spot - Sam Boyd and George Gordon with Teddy Stachiw runner up.

There was a good turnout at the wiener roast held at the beach which nicely finished the day's activities.

The junior golf lessons which began last week were received enthusiastically by a large number. As mentioned before this series of free lessons will be for four weeks, after which a junior-adult tournament will be held.

Sand traps are now being constructed on a few holes which should be quite interesting.

PLANS READY FOR CENTENNIAL PARK

Landscape Architect Mr. Bert Sitch of Plum Grove Nurseries has completed final blueprints of the proposed Centennial Park in Terrace Bay. These indicate the park will be one in which Terrace Bay residents can take great pride. The first steps were taken when Ontario Hydro sprayed the area last week to kill existing vegetation.

A sketch of the park area will be published at a later date.

With this large a project a definite Parks Committee is required and chairman Ed Cavanaugh has called for an urgent meeting of interested people from the town to form this committee. The meeting will be held on Thursday, July 14th at 7.30 p.m. in the large meeting room of the Recreation Centre. Mr. Cavanaugh requests that all Centennial representatives from each and every organization attend this meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. T. G. Husser and son Donald have left for a vacation which will take them to London, Aylmer and Niagara Falls. While in Niagara Falls Rev. Husser will assist at the marriage ceremony of a niece and on July 17th he will conduct a district service (continued Page 5)
