

SHARON RILEY (Continued from page 9)

Kinsmen and the Legion (who sponsored Daryl Lynn) and Teen Town (who sponsored Muriel) each gave their contestant a gift.

Prizes for children's costumes and other parade events were awarded by judges Mrs. Jack Johnston and Mrs. Bill Furlonger to Maureen Campbell and Cheryl Karns, as trees, 1st - second to Darlene Fummerton and Kevin Scott, third to Michael Spillane and fourth to Heather and Moira Brown.

For decorated bikes Dawn Dietrick won first, Ricky Dietrick 2nd and Elda Holland 3rd. Eileen Ferland, only entry, won for decorated tricycle and Cheryl Johnson, Maxine Holland and Louise Morin won first, second and third for decorated doll carriages.

The Honda was won by Armand Huard of Marathon, the bicycle by Jimmy Clavelle and child's car by Louis Czoupy of Zenmac Mines.

L. to R. - Heather & Moira Brown - back Kevin Scott, Darlene Fummerton, Maureen Campbell and Cheryl Karns.

PAYMENT REQUESTED ON LIBRARY FINES

H. M. Ermel presided for a regular meeting of the public library board.

One borrower was notified that one book in his possession was far overdue and another returned was so badly mutilated it would have to be replaced. Two other borrowers were notified their overdue accounts will be placed with a collector unless immediately settled.

A copy of every new book from Canadian Publishers or agents will be on display twice yearly in the Port Arthur public library. District librarians sent to make selections at these displays will be given financial assistance by the regional library.

The legislative grant of $700 was received as part payment of 1966 grant.

The Quetico folder on Summer Arts and Camping was ordered and the New York Book Review cancelled.

Award Winners - Pat McParland and Marjorie Bolan.
Photo by I. McCuaig

GRADUATES HONORED AT HOLY ANGELS

The following graduates were honored at closing exercises for Holy Angels' Separate school: Marjory Bolan, Estelle Chicoine, Rolande Courtemanche, Peggy Fournier, Monica Gauthier, Cathy McLellan, Rosemary McParland, Noreen Needham, Linda Power, Dale Sisson, Anne Marie St. Jean, Neldine West, James Comeau, Albert Courtemanche, Tony Figliomeni, Joe Figliomeni, Danny Godin, Greg MacIsaac, Ivan Martin, Justin Martin and Pat McParland.

The welcome address was given by Pat McParland followed by four selections by the school choir.

Graduates presented their last will and testament, a humorous bequeathing of various traits of students handed down to others. Certificates were presented by Rev. J. M. Cano.

Proficiency awards were presented by the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Women's League. The valedictory was by Joseph Figliomeni.

Marjory Boland received the Sario trophy for school spirit. Special gifts were presented by the graduates to Father Cano and to teachers and others who assisted during the school year. Awards were also presented in grades one to seven for proficiency.

Mrs. H. Fleming was guest speaker. The evening ended with a dance.

A. Speziale announced that a $25 award presented by the Women's Institute for competition in grade 8 in both public and separate schools for highest standing had been won by Pat McParland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Holmes have their daughters Miss Carol Holmes of Toronto and Mrs. Robt Dunville and baby Lisa of Nipigon visiting them, also Mr. and Mrs. Jim Waters and daughter Kathy of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McLeod (nee Jean Rattray) and family, of Sudbury, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rattray.

Mrs. Jeanette St. Pierre and Mr. and Mrs. John Branchaud are in St. Louis Marie Demontford Hospital, Montreal Rd. Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eaton and family are visiting in Toronto.