LEGION SPONSORS TWO AT SPORT CLINIC

In the photo at left, Mrs. Mericer, president of the Ladies Auxiliary, Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, Terrace Bay and Pat Jones, branch sports organizer say goodbye to Gail Dakin and Lorraine Belliveau who were sponsored by branch members and the Ladies Auxiliary to attend the Track and Field Clinic being held in Selkirk High School, Fort William.

The Legion hopes that they will both benefit from and enjoy their six days and will be able to help other interested teenagers when they return.

CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE EXPRESSES CONCERN

At a recent meeting the Terrace Bay Centennial Committee expressed concern at the slow response shown by local groups and organizations in making their Centennial plans known to them. At present only a few plans have been submitted for inclusion in the Centennial celebrations. These include the Kiwanis Safety Billboard - the official opening of the Aguasabon Golf Club - the Men's Chorus "Big Sing" - the C.W.L. Diocesan Con- (Cont'd P. 8)
