The Thall family were travelling home from a holiday in Western Canada.

Also in Terrace Bay Hospital is the Zappetelli family from Ignace, Ontario. They are Luigi Zappetelli 37, his wife Marie and two daughters, Erma 11 and Joyce 8. They are reported as having suffered serious injuries but are progressing satisfactorily.

Constable S.R. Jones of the Schreiber detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police is handling the investigation.

The Thall family make their home in Whitefish, Ontario.

OFFICIAL OPENING BOWLING LANES

Another first for Terrace Bay took place Saturday, July 30th when a ribbon cutting ceremony officially opened the newly decorated and renovated bowling lanes. The actual ribbon cutting was done by Kimberly-Clark mill Manager, John Ferrier, assisted by Ken McLeod, one of the Councillors who did much to put this automation into operation.

Automatic pinsetters have been installed by Double Diamond of Toronto and the lanes redecorated and new seating put in. The venture was a joint effort made possible by co-operation of Kimberly-Clark Company, the Recreation Association and Township Council. The Company's part in the installation is another of the instances where they get behind local endeavours which are community efforts. Funds were advanced by the Company to purchase the equipment, interest free, repayable over eight years.

In his remarks, the Double Diamond representative, Harry Miller of Winnipeg, praised the facilities available in Terrace Bay, saying that he con-considered them to be the best for a town of its size that he has seen anywhere.

First to try out the new pinsetters were mill manager John Ferrier, Benny Hayes, president of the Recreation Association, Reeve W. Adamo and Lew Edmunds, president of the Bowling Association.

Following the opening ceremony coffee and light refreshments were served to guests and friends while many residents took advantage of the opportunity to play one free game and so try out the new equipment.

later in the evening a draw was made for the transistor radio offered as door prize. Lucky winner was Mr. L. Hiebert. Winners of 'hidden pin' prizes were Mr. Joe Brown, Pauline Moon, Doris Gagnon, Mrs. Lois Hopper, Reid Boutilier, Dot Coupal, Kenny Johnson and Lil Harris.
