CARD OF THANKS - We wish to say goodbye to our many friends and neighbours in Terrace Bay. It has been a pleasure living and working with you these past many years. We have made friendships here we shall never forget. Thanks.

Sheila and Jack Todd and children

CARD OF THANKS - At this time I would like to convey my thanks to my fellow workers and all other employees at the Mill, the Company, and to all the mothers who were so kind to me and the children who were so well behaved during the times I painted in the homes here. I have accumulated many fine memories during my eighteen years and three months work in Terrace Bay and hope that my years of retirement in our town will continue to be as happy as the past has been.

Mike Yaremy

CARD OF THANKS - Sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors in Schreiber for the many acts of kindness prior to our departure for Sudbury. A very special "thank you" to the Saint John Ambulance Brigade, Helen Wallace, Bertha Winters and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hawk for the delightful parties they arranged for us. We shall always remember you and hope to see you when in Sudbury.

Sincerely,
 Harold and Winona Livingstone
