Company Gold Pass and with his retirement benefits provided by the company on a non-contributory pension plan basis. Company Manager John Ferrier praised Mike for his work over the years and promised him the full advantages of the townsite facilities that he has enjoyed in the past.

RAY HANSEN WINS K.C. TROPHY IN GOLF

This year's final tournament, the Men's Handicap, held on Labor Day and sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, was a huge success. At tee-off time the Clubhouse swarmed with golfers of all ages and the air was loaded with excitement and anticipation.

In a handicap tournament all are potential winners. This, and the handsome prizes, made everyone eager to shoot their handicap or better. Relaxation under such circumstances is hard to maintain. With pressure increasing as the game improves or deteriorates, the nerves take quite a beating. Of course this is golf and what makes it such a great game.

Tournament results were as follows:- Handicap Champion and winner of the K.C. Trophy and Carling award - Ray Hanson. First runner-up, Vic Timpano - 2nd runner-up (tied) Thor Olsen and Dave Desrosiers. Low gross, Dave Whalen - 1st nine holes Ned West - 2nd nine holes (tied) Jack Wellings and Kit Thomas.

The Knights of Columbus are to be congratulated for their interest in promoting this sport by making available such a fine trophy. Carling's recognition of the trophy winner with a fine prize also rates our gratitude. It might be advisable (Continued P. 11)
