APPROVAL NEEDED TO FENCE COMPANY LAND

"It has come to the attention of the Kimberly-Clark Pulp and Paper Company that some town residents are building fences beyond their property lines to enclose areas which are used as gardens, lawns, etc.

In practically every instance this property is owned by the Company. Please be advised that formal approval must be obtained by persons wishing to use Company property adjacent to their lot limits in this manner."

Following hard on the heels of the Nor-Wester Tartan designed by Evelyn Halliday of Fort William, a new Centennial tartan will soon make its appearance. When is a design a tartan and not a 'plaid'.

as were the other floral decorations used to decorate the hall. The lucky winners included Mrs. Gunter, Mrs. Fournier, Mrs. Ted Young, Mrs. Wayne Young, Miss Molly Harris and Miss Dale Boutilier.

Mrs. Yolande Boudreau was a most competent commentator, giving a complete and lively commentary on the styles as each appeared. The trend towards relaxed fashions was shown in both dressy styles and sportswear, with an increased use of the practical bonded fabrics which eliminate the need to line a garment and resist creasing.

All the models effectively displayed the good taste, quality and elegance - plus the 'one of a kind note' which were the themes of the show. These included the Misses Mary-Ellen Little, Linda Kennedy, Barbie MacMillan, Viola Wittenburg - Cont'd page 7...
