AWARDS NIGHT AT TERRACE BAY HIGH SCHOOL

Friday, October 28th saw the Annual Commencement and Awards night take place in the auditorium of Terrace Bay High School.

Only ten students graduated from grade 12 in the 1965-66 term and of these only six were present to receive their certificates from the chairman of the High School Board, Mr. A.Chisholm. They were, Bonnie Beddard, Mark Boudreau, Elizabeth Dobush, Ronald Falzetta, Janis McInnes and Marie Sadowick. Jill Crandlemire is enrolled at nursing school in Ottawa, Lynda Lawrence is attending the Vocational Training School at Sault Ste.Marie, Lance Stewart is continuing his education at the Lakehead and Errol Moores was not present. Of the remaining graduates all, except Janis McInnes who is working, are attending Grade 13 at Schreiber High School.

The Principal, W.W.Rowsom, regretted, in his remarks, that out of the original fifty students who continued page 5

KIMBERLY-CLARK SAFETY PROGRAM

Winners of last week's safety slogan were Fred Eickmeier, Len Pineault, Cosimo Commisso, Eileen Black and Henry Hermes. Only one person missed the slogan.

The third disabling injury experienced since the start of the EXPO '67 program occurred on October 20th when a Wood Handling employee suffered a low back strain.

Accidents resulting in injuries must be prevented, everyone must be alert and avoid unsafe work practices.

Remember this week's slogan -

"LOOK BEFORE YOU STEP"
