THE BIBLE TODAY

For Publication During the Week of
 October 30 to November 5, 1966

Greatly increased demand for the Scriptures by the blind in Canada is reported by the Canadian Bible Society. Four hundred and seventy volumes of Braille, and 4,356 records of Scripture readings were distributed in the first five months of this year - a 500% increase over the previous year.

The Canadian Bible Society now makes Braille and recorded Scriptures available free of charge to the registered blind in Canada, who now number 25,000, following a new policy adopted by the Society beginning on January 1, 1966.

A letter of appreciation from the Canadian National Institute for the Blind expresses the gratitude of blind Canadians for this service. Bible Societies throughout the world now supply Scriptures in Braille in more than thirty languages.

There are 18 volumes in a Braille Bible, and it requires 67 records in the 16 2/3 r.p.m. speed to provide the complete Bible on records.

Wisdom is in this Braille note from a 14-year-old girl: "Bible reading I do a lot, because it is not a waste of time, and you are not doing something you shouldn't do."

TOWN TOPICS

Mr. Clarence Buck, president of the Terrace Bay Male Chorus, attended the Upper Midwest district meeting of the Associated Male Choruses of America, held in Minneapolis, Minnesota last weekend and brought honour to this district by being elected president of this branch of the Association.

There are fourteen choruses in this district, eleven

MRS. BEA FAWCETT HONOURED

Prior to her departure for her new home the many friends of Mrs. Bea Fawcett gathered in the Curling Lounge for a farewell party. Joint hostesses were Mesdames Drexler, Lafontaine and Cole.

The entertainment included a fashion show which displayed some rather startling interpretations of current fashion trends.

A gift of money, a brooch and earring set, together with a scrap book of her life in Terrace Bay was presented to the guest of honour. As a long-service member of the Canadian Legion, Mrs. Fawcett received a Legion Pin from Mrs. Solly.

A delicious lunch was served.

On October 26th the Grade 5 pupils of St. Martin's School gave a going-away party for Cathie Fawcett. She was presented with a lovely Ookpik by Teresa Ramsey and Ralph Regis on behalf of her classmates.

An original card expressed the children's best wishes to Cathie in her new home in Duncan, B.C.
