THE BIBLE TODAY

For Publication During the Week of
 Nov. 6 to Nov. 12, 1966

The 1967 Budget for Bible translation and distribution work throughout the world was fixed at almost $7,000,000 at a meeting of the United Bible Societies' Executive Committee recently in Berlin. This represents the amount needed to be found by the Bible Societies to cover the cost of the work in non-self-supporting areas of the world.

Deficit is a necessary concomitant of the Bible Societies' policies: almost all editions are subsidized; the Bible Societies sponsor or are related to current work in 750 languages ($700,000); Scripture distribution facilities are maintained in 120 countries.

The Executive Committee reported with regret that a number of projects for 1967, costing in all $230,000, had had to be omitted from the budget. The U.B.S. Secretary, Dr. Olivier Bequin, commented: "It is most disturbing that work should have to be curtailed at the present time when widespread opportunities are offered for Bible work throughout the world.

"The Bible Societies are faced with opportunities for spreading the Word of God which they cannot meet for lack of funds. This is a sad story," added Dr. Bequin.

TOWN TOPICS

The Women of the Moose met in the Moose Home Nov. 2nd when Graduate Regent Marge Dejonghe received word that she is now entitled to wear a Green Cap. At the same time she accepted the chapter award for last year. Lunch was served by the Library Committee.

PORTRAITS OF THE PAST HERE DECEMBER 2

This program, which is the Centennial project of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Community Church, is slated for Friday, December 2nd. Tickets will go on sale very shortly. Not entirely a fashion show, the program will illustrate scenes and incidents from Canadian history, dressed as they were when they happened. This should prove interesting and helpful to all students as well as to their mothers.
