guides on how to help & prepare patrols for testing.

Lunch & supper were served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Anglican Church in Manitowadge. "Campfire" took place on Sat. evening in the United Church. The highlight of the event was the presentation of her Gold Cord to Emily Pelletier of Manitowadge. This award is the supreme ambition of all Guides.

Sunday morning the Guides attended church services before being driven home by Mr. Cotton, Mr. Hiebert & Mr. Macadam.

Two of the new methods were put into practice in Terrace Bay at a recent meeting when Lorraine Belliveau proved them successful. The other Guides are eager to try them too.

LEGION PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, met at a General Meeting with Mrs. P. Coupal in the chair in the absence of Mrs. C. Mercier. President of the men's branch, Mr. J. Fa Izetta was present for the nomination of new officers.

A donation was approved to Deer Lodge for
