CURLING - Everything seems to be in readiness for the curling season except ice. However, there appears to be steps in the right direction and even great hopes that sheets will be ready for this Saturday night.

In any event, be it curling or shuffle board, a big social, first of the year, is scheduled for Saturday, November 19.

Enter your name with Rocky Gavin or sign the entry form on the bulletin boards of either the Mill or curling lounge. Teams will be drawn from a hat and each entrant will be charged 50¢ for prizes. Games to start at 7 p.m. If you are not curling join the arm-chair group for the lively evening. Other events coming up are the regular curling schedule and the Turkey Bonspiel Dec. 2, 3, 4.

Time is running short for those curlers who have not as yet sent in their entry forms to the membership committee of B.Hayes, H.McLeod, and Rocky Gavin. Twenty-one rinks are entered and there is room for more. Enter your name and position so you can be placed.

Rendezvous Saturday night, November 19 at the Curling Club Lounge.
