

A NEWSPAPER - by M. MacDonald

The Grade 7 & 8 students are planning a newspaper to be called, "St. Martin's Centennial Torch". This newspaper will be like a year-book in its content but will be much simpler. All classes will submit ideas poems, and stories. There will be a contest in which all grades can participate. They will be asked to write a composition on "Why I Would Like To Go To Expo". The winner will have his or her composition printed.

Rachel St. Louis is the editor, a very important but difficult post. Already, she is looking over plans for a front page, selecting committees to do various jobs and in general getting everything started.

CENTENNIAL PROJECTS -

- by M. MacDonald

The Grade 7 and 8 students are going to do a mural of Canada from 1867 to 1967. It will be drawn in sections, then painted and then put together. But it will be no ordinary mural for real buttons will be sewn on the jackets and coats and numerous other things will be done to make it look real.

There is going to be a play about Sir John A. MacDonald and his wife. It will be entirely written by us using our history books. There will be something for everyone to do; scenery, special effects, make up and costuming, writing and acting out the play.

In St. Martin's, the windows are being painted as a traditional Christmas activity. But something new is being tried, and that is an octagon hanging from the ceiling in the middle of the room. On it will be painted parts of the Nativity scene.
