

ART EXHIBIT (cont'd from Page 7)

Mrs. Middaugh has been painting for about 10 years. She has attended various courses at Quetico Conference & Training Centre, Doon School of Fine Arts and Lakehead University Summer School Art Course this past summer. Her training is reflected in the exhibit. Mrs. Middaugh has taught children's art in Terrace Bay and adult classes for the Terrace Bay Art Club and Ceramic Courses in Manitouwadge. The exhibit

The exhibit is on display until Saturday, December 17 at 11 p.m., when a free draw will be made on the oil painting "View at Rossport".

TOP PHOTO - OUR FRIENDS, A DISPLAY FROM GRADE THREE ROOM.
 LOWER PHOTO - ANOTHER WALL DISPLAY FROM GRADE THREE.
 PHOTO LEFT - PART OF GRADE TWO'S MODEL OF TERRACE BAY.

WANTED TO BUY - boy's skates, size 1 or 2.
 Phone 3597

CENTENNIAL BADGES"

Canada's postal employees are going to participate in next year's Centennial celebrations by Photo's by G.Whiteley.

 voluntarily wearing badges bearing the Centennial symbol. The over 12,000 Letter Carriers and 4,000 Wicket Clerks are being requested to display the symbols on their uniforms throughout 1967.

Order your rug hooking supplies here —

WOOL - BURLAP - HOOKS

PAINT SUPPLY
 Glidden Quality Paints

213 KENOGAMI RD. PHONE 3761

Terrace Bay
MOTOR HOTEL

is pleased to present

ONE MAN ART SHOW
MARY MIDDAUGH

PRINTS - DRAWINGS - OILS - WATERCOLOURS
 in their lobby

SAT. DEC.10 - 2 p.m. to SAT. DEC.17 - 10p.m.

Attendance entitles you to free draw on oil painting