GAYLORD

FASHION CONSULTANT TO THE 160 SINGER CENTERS IN CANADA.

A loose langorous spiral of pale pearly crepe twisted over one shoulder and slipping to a slope of hem from knee to mid-calf . . . THE ASYMETRIC LOOK . . . fashion in evolution. Hems high or low? Necklines bare or covered? A clinging fluid line for now, with a hint of things to come.

"Did you make it yourself?" A comment you hear often? It may not be a compliment. Are there 'give-away' puckers at the tops of your set-in sleeves? Can your hemstitching be seen on the right side? Buttonholes and zippers professional looking? Master these details for a 'custom-made' (not home-made) look.

"THE NEW LOOK" OF '67 — the dirndle skirt in soft bulky wool cinched into a tiny waist — ever so smart in multicolor Roman stripes worked in the round. Edge the hem with padded binding and pair with a lean little jacket that barely brushes the hipbone. Great shaper for skinny hips!

Nothing to wear but your closet's bursting? Time to take stock. Give away everything you haven't worn at least once in the last year. Shorten hems, mend and alter what's left. Put your creative thinking cap on . . . perhaps a collar off here, a touch of fur there or a binding of luscious braid will spark the spirit of those tired clothes. Sew some separates to pair up with your 'orphans'. Add one or two smashing new outfits and . . . Surprise! You've got lots of things to wear.

Popping up on fun clothes, sleek shifts, hostess wear and resort clothes — the pompom necklace. Make your own from wool pompoms strung together like beads. Be madly gay with varicolors or color-crazy with the sizzling spin of one high-tension hue, from golf-balls to snow-balls. Little girls fancy them too!

CURLING NEWS

Curling is again the upper most in the minds of the curlers after the Christmas celebrations.

Joe Dejonghe a first year skip heads the point list and has become a strong contender.

Ice sheets will be kept very busy in the next few weeks. (continued on Page 12..)
