NOTICE - The name of Mr. Roberts was inadvertently omitted from Council Quotes in last week's issue of the News.

The monthly meeting of The C.P.&T. Humanitarian Committee of Odd Fellow and Rebeka Lodge members met on Sunday, February 5. Several cases were dealt with and a vote of thanks passed to all who helped make their penny auction a success.

There will be a regular meeting of the Terrace Bay Fish and Game Association, Thursday, February 9, 1967 at 7.30 p.m. in the small meeting room at the Recreation Centre.

of past treasurer Mrs. Betty Turner was given to Mrs. Alice Farrow and Mrs. Jan Hall for auditing the books.

Rev. Husser spoke on the response to the Hymn Book appeal. He has ordered 100 new books, but an additional 150 are needed. A motion was passed that $75. should be donated.

Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. Donna Broadhurst announced that the Auxiliary would put on a Dessert Bridge in the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel on March 15th. Tickets are available from members, and anyone who will donate a prize valued at $1.50 is asked to bring it to the March meeting.

At the March meeting there will be a mock fashion show, a Pot-Luck supper and either a guest speaker or film. For this meeting the time has been changed to 6-8p.m. All women in town are reminded that Friday, February 10 is the World Day of Prayer. The service will take place in the Community Church, and the ladies of St. Martin's Church have accepted an invitation to attend. Baby-sitting service will be at the Church.

All members were urged to attend the afternoon meeting February 20th at which the guest speaker will be Rev. Tanner of the Leper Colony.

The February program was a fully automated one in which the worship and devotional period and guest speaker were on tape. Coloured inspirational slides accompanied the worship period. Guest speaker was the Rev. C. Jordan of Georgia who gave three of the parables and up to date interpretation.
