THE BIBLE TODAY

For Publication During the Week of
 Feb. 19 to Feb. 25, 1967

A tiny white-haired lady, who is approaching her own centennial, has launched a mammoth project to celebrate Canada's birthday. First reported in the Ottawa Journal, and picked up by the Pentecostal Testimony, the story is about Bethel Pentecostal Church in Ottawa.

Mrs. Mary Maley, 90, of that city began writing the 100th Psalm as her part of her church's plan to reproduce the Bible by hand.

Bethel Pentecostal's pastor, Rev. Gordon R. Upton, and project co-ordinator, Robert Howie, presented Mrs. Maley with the first official page of the giant 18 x 14 - inch Bible.

Rev. Mr. Upton said 1,189 past and present members of the church will take part in the project. Each individual will reproduce one chapter of the Bible.

Some former members of the congregation are located as far away as East Africa, Taiwan and Argentina and they will receive their share through the mail.

The project was started several weeks ago, and is expected to be completed by the Fall of this year. Once the Bible, which will be seven or eight inches thick, is completed it will occupy a position of honour in the main foyer of the church.

PROMOTION LITERATURE DISTRIBUTED BY C of C

In his annual report presented at last Thursday's meeting of Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce, L. Crandlemire stated that he had distributed approximately 4,000 local brochures last year (1966). Part of the report follows: "The greater portion going to three Chamber of Commerce booths in the Lakehead and one in Sault Ste. Marie. The Nipigon booth also handled a fair number.

The Canadian Government Travel Bureau at Minneapolis were supplied with 300 initially and required an additional 200 later in the year.

It was decided early in the year to extend distribution to points farther afield and token amounts were distributed to all Canadian Government Travel Bureaus in North America, All Ontario Government Travel Bureaus, Chamber of Commerce booths and Department of Lands & Forests offices.

The Chicago National Boat Show and Sports and Travel Shows were both supplied as usual.

Ontario Department of Lands & Forests Parks along Highway #17 from White River to Nipigon were kept supplied during the summer season as well as various motels and some key service stations."

D. Raflant presided at the meeting and a new member, Phil Stuart, was welcomed.
