

ESKIMO PRINTS EXHIBIT

In the eighteen years since the first soap stone carvings landed on the Canadian Art market from Cape Dorset, Eskimo Art has become a flourishing enterprise. It has given the Eskimo the chance to show the world, as well as Canada, his power of observation, a power that for a hunting people in an inhospitable land could mean survival or death. The Art releases an equal power of imagination, depicting not only the hard truths of his every day life, but the spirits and demons perceived only in Eskimo Mythology.

It is to the credit of the External Affairs Department and the Eskimo Art Committee, that the sculpture, drawings and prints on exhibit and the market today, are an expression of the Eskimos life, thought and struggle for life's survival, his imagination not his concept of what the white man would like.

An exhibit of Eskimo Prints (as well as work of local Art Club) will be on display in the Art Centre on March 4 and 5 from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. each day.
