LADIES' CURLING NEWS

Last Tuesday wound up the Divisional Play for the Seagram's and Laskin's Trophies. The Peg Wellings' foursome of Mary Dashkewytch, Pauline Phillips, and Ann Packalen, captured the "A" Division and the Seagram's Trophy well ahead of the rest of the teams, while Ann Latour's rink of A. Paulsen, S. Dorman and A. Churney won the runner up spot. During the 15 trophy games, the Wellings' rink lost only 1 game. Well done ladies.

A much closer battle took place in "B" Division for the Laskin's Trophy, with Mary Hale's rink of Lois Shubaly, Glenna MacDonald, and Lee Zaloski who squeaked out a win in the final game over Sylvia Duquette's rink of Betty Randa, Yvonne Rochon and Barbara MacMillan, who took the runner up spot.

The following are the final standings for the two divisions after 15 games for the above two trophies: "A" Division- P. Wellings 140 points, A. Latour 98, B. Bouchard 80, H. Lafontaine 77, N. Crockford 70, K. Thorsteinson 60. "B" Division - M. Hale 75-1/2 points, S. Duquette 67, D. Clancy 66-1/2, I. Romanuk 57-1/2, L. Gavin 57, O. Chapman 19.

Peggy Wellings continued her winning ways over the past week end in the Marathon Ladies Bonspiel. This time her rink was made of D. Clancy, C. Cvitkovich, and E. Burns. The ladies competed with 20 other rinks and won the first event. A. Latour and A. Paulsen also participated in this bonspiel with Ann's sister, O. Kross, and won 3rd prize in the 3rd event. Congratulations to you ladies.

A round robin play for Club Championship and the new O'Keefe award commenced last Thursday. A total of 11 games will be played to declare the winner. Everyone is again reminded to get their entries in early for the local Terrace Bay Ladies Bonspiel being held this year on March 31, April 1 and 2nd. There is a 32 rink limit and Louise Gavin, Bonspiel Chairman, would be glad to accept your entry now.
