HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL SUCCESSFUL

The most successful winter carnival, by common consent, was held this year by Schreiber high school, with everyone involved in the fun and sport activities.

The school was divided into four house leagues for the three-day event with the house of Canuck emerging victorious with 96 points.

Starting on Thursday outdoor activities included a human dog sled race, followed by snowshoe and obstacle races for girls and boys. Dominic Pellagrino was MC for a variety show in the evening with Wendy Weaver as pianist. The program included folk songs by Brenda and Bill Duncan, three monologues by Terry McParland and selections by the school choir.

In novelty events Dom Pellagrino won the beard growing contest and Susan Bromley and Boyd Drake set a fast pace in the cracker-eating contest

While these and other contests were being carried out, H. M. Ermel, L. R. McCuaig and Harold Shack judged the ice carvings, awarding first prize to Grade 10 for a dinosaur, second to Grade 12 for old woman in a shoe, and third to Grade 11 for Snoopy.

Jody David and Corrie Eaton were crowned king and queen of the carnival at the dance. Climaxing the weekend of fun was a monster fireworks display after the dance.

Rosemary Speziale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Speziale won first prize in the oral essay contest held in Holy Angels' School, Schreiber. Rosemary will represent her school in the hydro public speaking contest being held in Red Rock today.

The winner there competes at the district level in Port Arthur and the winner there travels to Toronto during the Easter holidays to compete with others from across Ontario.

Schreiber Kinsmen are providing travelling expenses for the Schreiber winner to Red Rock.

Other students entered in the contest were Lola Scott, Maureen Campbell and Michael Spadoni.
