MORE CHILDREN'S CLOTHING EXEMPT FROM 5% SALES TAX

Families with large children now get further relief from the provincial retail sales tax on clothing.

Provincial Treasurer C.S. MacNaughton has eliminated the five per cent tax on bigger sizes of children's clothing.

The new regulations, effective April 1, extend the exempt range to size 18 in boy's and 14X in girl's garments, as well as children's styles of sweaters to large size.

No tax applies now to dress and sports shirts to boy's size 14-1/2.

In hose, the new exempt size is 10 for girls and 10-1/2 for boys. Stretchy socks designed for children are also free of sales tax.

Port Arthur-Fort William Lions Club President, Robert Morrison regards the Red Army concert presentation as a "rare opportunity" for people of North-western Ontario to see and hear one of the world's greatest singing, dancing and musical ensembles.

"We understand that for many years everywhere they have performed there has been a sold out house.

We expect 4,000 people to see them here. That is all the Gardens will accommodate because of the north end being blocked off by special stage curtains and platform risers they are bringing to complement the 68 ft. by 40 ft. stage, the largest ever assembled in the Gardens."

Among the many songs to be heard, besides memorable renditions of 'O Canada' and the Soviet Union national anthem, will be 'Kalinka', 'Brave Men From The Don', 'Voice of the Earth', 'Song of the Volga Boatman', 'Dark Eyes', and the North American favorite 'Oh Shanandoah'.

The choir and orchestra includes many soloists who rank among the most popular artists in the Soviet Union.

It was announced late Tuesday afternoon that the Grade 8 students of St. Martin's school will continue their babysitting service.

CURLING SONG - (Old Black Joe)

Gone are the days when a lady stayed at home
 Hubby used to bonspiel, friend wifie didn't roam.
 Now little kids eat beans all winter long
 While father rocks the babe to sleep
 With this theme song:
 Mom's sweeping, Mom's sweeping,
 But not the kitchen floor.
 She may roll in tomorrow morn
 At half past four.
