fashion news BY NANCY GAYLORD
FASHION CONSULTANT TO THE 160 SINGER CENTERS IN CANADA.

Two parts, two colours. Take a flip of nautical navy and pleat into a swinging skirt. Pair with a long stretch of jacket sparingly sleeved and strikingly striped with citrus lime. This is the look of Spring -- groovy, moving skirts, long tops -- bound, striped or trimmed for bi-colour beauty.

Size yourself up. For a sleek, custom-tailored look; know your pattern size and figure size and figure type. The pattern companies offer several figure types -- Teen, Petite, Junior and Misses. Each is available in a range of sizes. Figure-type is a body shape Not an age. Grandmother may be a "teen" type while her teenage granddaughter may be a "Half-Size". Find your type and stick to it for fewer alterations and more flattering styles.

In the swim. Even if you're not bound for a southern holiday, now is the time to plan the backbone of your summer wardrobe. While the stores introduce exciting resort clothes, plan a sewing spree using these new colours and lines. Summer bonus: the sleek styling and wonderful figure control of the one-piece swimsuit with halter and turtle necks, hip-belts and tunic-skirts. To cover-up, top with a matching mini-skirt or mini-tent. Fun-loving fabrics reflect fashion's gay mood: poor-boy ribs, velvety velours, Pucci-print jersies, piqué and bouclé. Sun-drenched colours vibrate in stripes, florals and African abstracts.

Built-in belts are the newest idea on casual tweeds and plaids. The belt (of leather or suede) is actually the waistband on smart skirts and slacks -- less bulk for a smaller, neater waist.

The secret of elegant women: rich, beautiful fabrics plus ultra-simple styling ... a formula any home-fashionmaker can master. Translate a design that frankly flatters into a multitude of luscious colours and textures to wear round-the-clock. Eliminate fussy details and non-essentials and sew carefully, to produce a dress that enhances "you" without stealing the show.

To wear now, glass or brass bubbles to swing from your ears by fine gold chains. In enameled pastels, marbled jewel shades or brilliant polished metals, to bob and sway as you "frug" in your new tent dress.
