taking the solo part.

Four Mounties paraded for Saskatchewan and "Wheat" in Manitoba rippled along smoothly with six skaters and Linda Dejonghe as soloist.

Jamie Cumming soloed as the Centennial Spirit before Darlene Suo appeared as Star of the Frost in the Northern Ontario Winter Wonderland. Linda Hayes reigned as Queen of the Festival in Southern Ontario's Niagara Fruit Festival and Jackie Turner appeared as The Centennial Rose.

A former Terrace Bay boy, Terry Delaronde, made his appearance before intermission, giving a sparkling performance and leaving one who has watched him since his first appearance on Terrace Bay ice with the feeling that this young man may one day be one of Canada's bright hopes at the Olympics.

Following intermission Terry reappeared with Miss Carol Chicka in a duet in which it was apparent that much practice together had created such co-ordination.

In the Quebec number Wendy Evans-Smith was Mademoiselle in a French Moods number with four other jeune fille

Ten Highland skaters saluted Nova Scotia with Joan Belliveau doing a Sword Dance number. Jane and Judy Chopty were featured at a Charlottetown Confederation Ball (Prince Edward Island) while New Brunswick's floral emblem 'Violets' were sisters Pam and Jamie Cumming.

Gail Simmer was the Pride of the Fleet in Newfoundland's "The Fleets In" number and Shirley Phillips was Diamond

CARD OF THANKS - The Centennial Committee wish to thank everyone who helped in any way to make the presentation of the Tinder Box the success that it was. A special thanks to the Moose Lodge and the Recreation Association for the use of their chairs and to the High School Board for the use of the Auditorium.

Mrs. Margaret Helmink, Committee Chairman.

BRIDE ELECT HONORED

Mrs. John Benko convened a surprise shower in the Legion Hall for bride-elect Barbara Daley. Fifty-five ladies were present when Barbara, assisted by Darlene Pearen and Verna Daley opened the many attractive gifts.

Mrs. C. Daley, the bride's mother, and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Ted Young sat beside Barbara as a delightful lunch was served by Verna Daley, Linda Woodruff, Heather Boyd and Mary-Clare Coupal. Mary Clare circulated the gift book. The co-convenors for the lunch were Mrs. Bougie, Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. Steen.
