GERALDTON WINS CRIBBAGE TROPHY

Twelve Geraldton men made their annual trip here Sunday for a challenge cribbage game with the local men's club and carried the trophy home with them, winning in a close score of 22 to 20 points.

The Geraldton teams brought souvenir wooden trophies, made by them, to the Rossport players. These were carved from birch and mounted with plastic fir tree representing the Dept. of Lands and Forests, a core of rock for mining, with engraved plaques having Rossport-Geraldton, 1967, on them.

The two oldest members of Rossport club, Oscar Anderson and Charles Todesco, were presented with honorary membership cards and buttons, from the Kenogamisis Fish & Game Protective Association by Mac McEwen. A buffet luncheon was served and a pleasant hour spent reminiscing.

The Rossport Club plan to visit the Geraldton group early in May when fresh fish will be carried as a return gift.

The members of Geraldton Cribbage club were Archie McEwen, Stew Munroe, Ray Graham, Jack Crayton, Al. Berry, Vonn Dowing, Gordon Scott, Lou Livingston, Chas. Kerr, Chas. Alexander, E. McColl and J. Burns.

Rossport players were Oscar Anderson, Romeo Bouchard, Peter Testori, Chas. Todesco, Eugene Gerow, Herb. Legault, Mac Hubelit, Felix Legault, Ben Lespenski, J. Dunn, Ken Bowlier and Tom Yandon. Toi Seppala was time and score keeper.

HOSPITALITY SEMINAR HELD IN TERRACE BAY

Last Friday night the Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce were hosts to a Lake Superior North-Shore Hospitality Seminar. This was one of a series of seminars sponsored by the Ontario Department of Tourism and Information. Co-sponsors are: The Marathon and District Chamber of Commerce, Nipigon Chamber of Commerce, Lake Superior International Highway Association and The Ontario Department of Tourism and Information.

Sixty-four representatives from Nipigon, Marathon, Schreiber and Manitouwadge were present, in spite of a heavy fog.

A get acquainted and registration session started proceedings at 7.30 p.m. and guests were welcomed by R. Sinotte, representing the township, D. Rafalant, Chamber of Commerce President. The latter introduced Mr. Bob Bridge, District Representative - Ontario Department of Tourism and Information.

Keynote of the seminar is, of course, a treatment of the travelling public, in particular, the tourist and slides, speeches and a film all pointed up what "Hospitality" means with appropriate examples.

Guest speaker of the evening was Mr. Paul Drombolis, Secretary Manager - Canadian Lakehead Convention Bureau. (continued on Page 14A)
