SPRING CONCERT—from Pg. 1

The Band then presented three popular selections. Played with spirit, these selections were a revelation - the last piece, "Slavonic Pageant," with its sombre opening bars then quickening tempo, being particularly effective.

Four selections from the popular Brigadoon were the next choice of the Chorus - "I'll Go Home To Bonnie Jean" was a happy, sprightly conclusion to this section.

The Chorus came on strong in their third section and their own joy in singing came through to the audience in "The Jolly Roger" and "The World Outside".

At this point Master of Ceremonies, A. Chisholm announced that Dr. Arnold Phillips, M. Mus., of Red Rock, would help accompany the Choir who premiered his composition "Salute To Thunder Bay".

Written several years ago Dr. Phillips has changed the words of his song to fit in with Canada's Centennial Year.

Choir conductor H. Lohr next invited the audience to participate in a group of familiar melodies. The innovation was well received.

The Band again appeared in three numbers - all with pulsating rhythm - the last selection "Swing Azoo Polka" a happy choice as it adapts very well to band music.

As an encore numbers the Band played "Brazilia".

The Chorus were at their best in the last group of four numbers. Appearing on stage in "bush" clothes they sang, "Jack Was Every Inch A Sailor", "The Banks of Newfoundland, The Badger Drive and Ye Maids of Ontario".

The lovely blending of male voices as they closed with the familiar "Let There Be Music" remained in the ears long after the concert was over.

The Chorus will take part in "The Big Sing" in Fort William Gardens this Saturday and the Band plan to enter a Music Festival in Nipigon. Accompanist for the choir is Mrs. M. Chisholm, conductor is B. Lohr.
